

TVA 2003 Transmission Customer Conference

Introduction of Break-out sessions

Break-out Sessions

- Generator Scheduling and Control Area Operations
- Regional Reliability and Transfer Capability
- Transmission Reservations and Scheduling
- Generator Stability Concerns

Session Objectives

- Overview key TVA business processes
- Create a forum for discussion
- Listen to feedback on TVA's business processes
- Evaluate information gathered for potential improvement areas

Break-out Session 1 – Hermitage C

- Generator Scheduling and Control Area Operations -- Edd Forsythe and Larry Goins
 - Process Overview
 - Frequency Deviation Concerns
 - Ramping Consideration and Improvement Opportunities
 - Questions & Answers

Break-out Session 2 – Hermitage A

- Regional Reliability and Transfer Capability -- Stuart Goza and Dan Kehoe
 - Overview the TVA Reliability Area
 - Review Operating Entity Interface and Reliability Coordination Agreement
 - Review Process for Establishing Interface Transfer Limits
 - Questions & Answers

Break-out Session 3 – Hermitage B

- Transmission Service Reservations and Scheduling -- Sue Mangum-Goins and Rocky Roberts
 - Transmission Service Arrangements
 - OASIS Administration
 - Transaction Scheduling
 - Questions & Answers

Break-out Session 4 – Cheekwood C

- Generator Stability Concerns --

Travis Sykes

- Stability Standards Overview
- Interconnection Configuration Concerns
- Questions & Answers

Break-out Schedule

- First session 1:45 – 2:30 pm
- Break
- Second session 2:45 – 3:30 pm
- Final wrap-up and evening logistics at 3:45 pm